

Consistency & Good practice

Time changes, but the rewards behind ethics, consistency, and good practice remain the same. As the winter months fade, it is time to get in the swing of things for spring. So, how have you set yourself to thrive?

In this month's newsletter, we look at preventing issues with your transport and haulage business, the safeguards you should have in place for your intellectual property, how to avoid an employment tribunal, and how we can help assist you should the corporate veil be pierced.

Understand the risks and responsibilities directors face with transport operator licenses. Learn strategies to protect your company's licence. We outline essential requirements, from compliance to legal obligations to the potential consequences. Read more in our article here.

by Tej Thakkar

Find out how watching services are crucial in safeguarding intellectual property rights. These services offer vital brand protection, from monitoring trademark registers to detecting potential infringements. Learn about their legal implications and how they can benefit your business. Read more in our article here.

by Jonathan Perlmutter

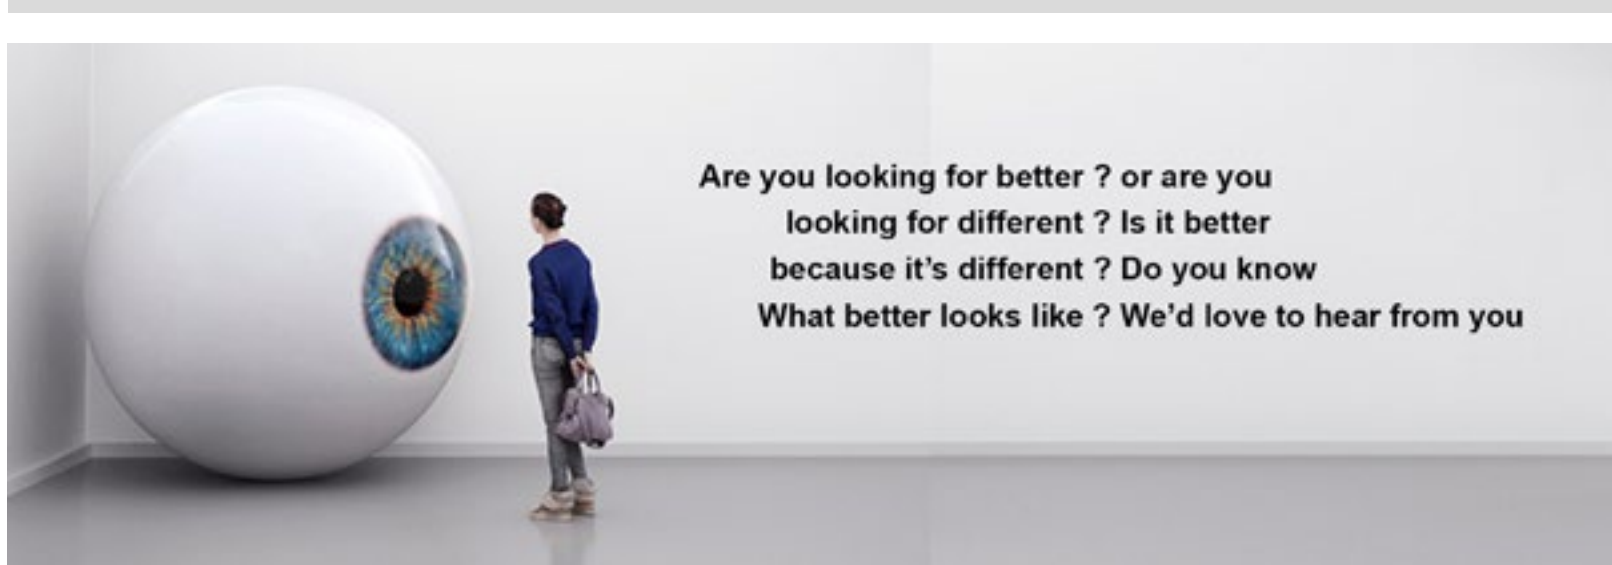

Learn how to prevent employment tribunal issues with our comprehensive guide. BLHR offers expert advice on legal obligations, fair recruitment practices, and handling disciplinary matters. Protect your business reputation and minimise legal liabilities. Read more in our article here.

by Samantha Randall

Explore the legal intricacies of 'Piercing the Corporate Veil' and its implications for directors and shareholders. Learn about the legal framework, real life examples, and how our experts can assist you through interviews and investigations. Read more in our article here.

by Zoe Hosking

- Why we don't pay referral fees
- How the new paternity leave legislation provides flexibility
- Company Law changes: A guide for business owners
- Family Disputes: When the other side is unprepared

